SWELL SLIGO

Swell Sligo connects the web, creative and entrepreneurial communities in the North West to meet one another, tap into emerging trends, and shape the future of their businesses and lifestyles.

We are telling the stories behind the leading creative game-changers and entrepreneurs that offer real-world insight into the mechanics of creativity, web and enterprise.

Events to date in 2014 have included a series of networking Supper Clubs in Strandhill.

With a blend of keynote speakers, networking events and evening festivities, Swell Sligo is designed to spark collaboration and inspire individuals to execute their ideas.

THE SWELL SUMMIT

The Swell Summit will take place on 31 JANUARY 2015 in Sligo Airport, Strandhill, Co Sligo.

This unique venue overlooks beautiful Sligo Bay and is tucked between the iconic Ben Bulbin and Knocknarea mountains.

Speakers

Hear from the movers and shakers, the disrupters and the change-makers of the web, creative and start-up communities in Sligo and further afield.

Under bare Ben Bulbin's head expect to get inspired by stories of successes and failures, passions and heart-breaks.

Who should attend?

If you are a developer, designer, creative, inventor or just somebody thinking of starting something new, then the Swell Summit has something for you.

Get your fix of inspiration, motivation, AND meet some new folks. You will leave charged with ideas, a bigger network, and eager to create great work!

Why Attend?

- Inspiration: See and hear from industry leaders and local legends in a beautiful location.
- Education: Learn about emerging trends and technologies and get tips & tricks.
- Networking: A great opportunity to meet peers, who share your passion for art, design, code & inspiration.
